MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS
Season credentials are valid through the Conference Finals, but would not be valid should the Cavaliers advance to the NBA Finals (credentials for the Finals are handled by the NBA). Single-game credentials may be arranged by calling the Cavaliers Public Relations Team (216-420-2350) or faxing a request to our attention (216-420-2298). Single-game credentials can be picked up two hours prior to game time at the media entrance, located at the south end of Quicken Loans Arena (off of Gateway Plaza adjacent to Jacobs Field). Photo ID is required to obtain your credential.

Your credential does not guarantee a seat. Please contact the PR department no later than 5:00 p.m. the day before a game (5:00 p.m. on Friday for weekend and Monday games) to reserve a seat in the press seating areas.

In the event you are unable to cover a game for which you have obtained credentials, please call us to cancel so that another member of the media may be credentialed. In most instances, credentials for visiting media will be delivered to the hotel.

Season and single-game credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Quicken Loans Arena and forfeiture of the credential. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
All members of the media must enter the building through the media entrance. It is located at the south end of Quicken Loans Arena (across from Jacobs Field) and opens two hours prior to game time. Plenty of parking is available in close proximity to the Quicken Loans Arena.

MEDIA WORKROOM
During the playoffs, there will be two media work areas. All print media should use the existing press rooms in the north end of the event level. Additional workspace is available to all photographers, radio and television media members in the space adjacent to the Playoffs press conference area.

The media work areas are accessible only with a valid credential. The work rooms open two hours before game time and remain open until the last member of the media is finished working.

In order to provide the proper working environment, friends, relatives or guests of the media will not be permitted access to the media workroom. Also, we ask for your consideration in keeping noise in the work room at a reasonable level for those who are working.

TELEPHONES
A limited number of telephones are provided for general use in the media workroom. Individuals using those phones should make all calls on a collect, third-person or credit card basis. If you would like to order your own phone line, please contact the Public Relations team.

PLAYER/COACH AVAILABILITY
Practices/Shootarounds: In general, the final 30 minutes of practice are open to the media with interviews afterward. To confirm practice/shootaround times, contact the Public Relations team (216-420-2350).
Pregame: In accordance with NBA policy, the Cavaliers' and visitors' locker rooms will be open to members of the media 90 minutes before each game for a 45-minute period. The Cavaliers' locker room is located at the northeast corner of Quicken Loans Arena, while the visitors' locker room is located on the east side of Quicken Loans Arena.
Postgame: Locker rooms will open 10 minutes after the conclusion of each game. Cavaliers Head Coach Mike Brown will do his postgame interviews in the playoffs press conference area.
Other Interviews: To schedule an interview with a Cavaliers player or coach, please contact the Cavaliers Public Relations office at 216-420-2350. Longer-format interviews are best conducted after home practices on non-game days.

SERVICES
Media Information Help Desk: The help desk will be located in front of the regular season media workroom. This will be staffed throughout the playoffs. Please address all questions to the help desk or a member of the Cavaliers PR team.
Media Dining: A pregame meal will be available to working media at the cost of $8.00. The dining area is located on the southwest corner on the event level. Meals will be available starting 90 minutes prior to tip-off. In addition, snacks and beverages will be available at halftime in the media rooms.

SEATING
Seating is assigned in all media sections; seating charts will be available in the media workrooms. There are electrical outlets at all locations, and telephones are located at various points courtside and in auxiliary media seating in sections 103, 126, and 133.

TV AND RADIO
Visiting television broadcast positions will be courtside, adjacent to the visitors 'bench. Radio broadcast positions will be in the radio booth in Section C126. If statisticians are desired, please make arrangements with the Cavaliers Public Relations staff at least 24 hours before game time. All requests for pregame or postgame interviews should be directed to the Cavaliers PR team.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Photographers are asked to keep off the sidelines and to be considerate of the season ticket holders seated directly behind them. Photographers must be on assignment from a recognized news source; freelance photographers will not be credentialed. Photographers are asked to wear rubber-soled shoes and are required to have rubber lens shades for their cameras. Only television photographers doing postgame interviews will have access to locker room areas.

CAVALIERS – WIZARDS FIRST ROUND MATCHUP

The Cavaliers and Wizards will meet in the NBA Playoffs for the third time in history as Cleveland claimed the fourth seed in the Eastern Conference with a 50-32 record while Washington clinched the fifth spot with a 42-40 record. Daniel Gilbert

Majority Owner, Cleveland Cavaliers

Daniel Gilbert is the Chairman and Founder of Quicken Loans Inc., which includes Quicken Loans, Rock Financial and Title Source.

Gilbert also is majority owner of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers basketball team.

Quicken Loans closed $16 billion in residential mortgage loans in 2005. The company employs more than 3,500 people and is ranked as the nation's largest online retail home lender. Rock Financial is Michigan's largest home mortgage company and two of its brick-and-mortar branches in southeast Michigan are the largest retail mortgage branches in the country.

Quicken Loans Inc. has been ranked a Top 15 "Best Place to Work" in America by FORTUNE magazine for the past three years. Computerworld magazine recently ranked the company #1 on its "Best Places to Work in Technology" list. Rock Financial has been voted "The Best and Brightest Company to Work for in Metro-Detroit."

The company's website "Quickenloans.com" has been named the "Best of the Web" site by Forbes, Money and PC magazines.

Gilbert founded Rock Financial Corporation in 1985 as a first-year law student. Gilbert, then 22 years old, served as the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board. Rock Financial grew into one of the largest independent mortgage banks in the country. In May 1998, Gilbert took the company public. Initially a brick and mortar lender, the company launched "Rockloans.com" in January of 1999, which quickly positioned itself as the leader in online retail mortgage lenders.

In December 1999, Intuit Inc. (makers of market leading software TurboTax and Quicken) purchased Rock Financial. The national web operation was renamed "Quicken Loans" and grew substantially as the leading provider of direct-to-consumer home loans on the Internet, offering mortgages in all 50 states. Gilbert remained at the company as its CEO.

In July, 2002, 30 months from the sale of Rock Financial, Dan led a small group of private investors and purchased the Quicken Loans subsidiary back from Intuit. While Quicken Loans, Inc. is now 100 percent privately held, the company retains all Quicken Loans branding and marketing initiatives, including partnerships with Yahoo!, MSN.com and AOL.com.

Gilbert became majority owner of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers in March, 2005. In the short period he has owned the Cavaliers, he has led a complete overhaul of the front office executive team, coaching staff, player personnel, game presentation, as well as renovated the newly named "Quicken Loans Arena," (known as "The Q") including new seats, state of the art scoreboards, video systems, sound systems, arena graphics, signage, security, locker rooms, and suite upgrades.

Gordon Gund

Twenty-two seasons ago, it looked as though the Cavaliers might be headed out of Northeast Ohio until Gordon, now 65 and a native of Cleveland, and his brother George stepped in to purchase the club at the last minute, keeping the team at The Coliseum.

The Gunds presided over the resurgence of The Coliseum and the design and construction of Gund Arena which opened at the beginning of the 1994-95 season. Under the guidance of the Gunds, building records were set in attendance and bookings in both facilities, while the Cavaliers recorded one of the largest increases in home attendance in the NBA over the past 20 seasons. In October 1996, Gund was elected Chairman of the NBA's Board of Governors and served in that capacity for three years.

In March of 2005, Gordon Gund sold a majority ownership stake in the Cavaliers, including the lease rights to Gund Arena (renamed Quicken Loans Arena in September of 2005), to the group headed by current Cavaliers majority owner, Dan Gilbert and fellow minority owner David Katzman. Gordon retained a minority ownership stake in the franchise.

As a former co-owner, with George, of the Minnesota North Stars of the National Hockey League, Gordon and his brother were instrumental in building that franchise before its eventual sale in the spring of 1990. At that time, Gordon and George were granted an NHL expansion team that began play as the San Jose Sharks for the 1991-92 season. The Gunds sold their majority stake in the Sharks during February of 2002.

The expertise displayed by Gordon in the sports world has been evident in his other interests as well. He serves as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Gund Investment Corporation, which is involved in diversified investment activities. This foundation is dedicated to finding treatments and cures for retinitis pigmentosa and allied degenerative diseases of the retina, such as Usher syndrome and macular degeneration. These diseases as a group affect more than nine million Americans and are the leading causes of blindness and deaf-blindness in the United States today.

Len Komoroski
President, Cavaliers/Quicken Loans Arena

Len Komoroski was named President of the Cavaliers/Quicken Loans Arena, which includes the newly-christened Quicken Loans Arena – "The Q", in April 2003. He spent the previous seven years as Senior Vice President and Chief of Business Operations for the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

A seasoned business executive, Komoroski brings more than 20 years of experience in professional sports and entertainment to the organization. His leadership and business initiative bring a solid foundation from which the Cavaliers and The Q can continue to thrive and flourish.

For the 2003-04 season, Komoroski oversaw the restructuring of how the Cavaliers approached the business community, including the development of a staff featuring some of the top sports marketing executives in the industry. The collective efforts both on and off the floor resulted in one of the top business turnaround stories in NBA history. The Cavaliers had the largest year-over-year attendance increase in NBA history, progressing from a league-low of 11,497 per game in 2002-03 to 18,288 in 2003-04 – a 59% increase. Television ratings were up 300% and featured revised broadcast agreements resulting in the largest number of locally-televised games in team history. Radio ratings also increased by more than 200% and local merchandise sales grew by 500%. The Cavaliers also experienced the largest increase in corporate partnership revenue in the NBA last season. He also led the charge in the transformation of the Cavaliers communications efforts and dramatic changes in developing one of the most dynamic game experiences in the NBA.

The 2004-05 season saw more of the same, with average home attendance of 19,128 – the second highest average in team history, continued substantial growth in corporate sales revenue and more radio and television ratings growth of approximately 20% over the previous season's dramatic numbers. The Sports Business Journal also named the Cavs website as the best in the NBA and one of the best in sports. In addition, for the 2005-06 season, Quicken Loans Arena is undergoing a major presentation transformation, including a state-of-the-art LED scoreboard and display system, enhanced arena aesthetics throughout the building, upgraded sound capabilities and new wine-colored seats to better reflect team spirit.

While with the Eagles, Komoroski brought many properties in-house, including the Eagles Television Network, which is the largest developer of local programming in the NFL. Under his guidance, the Eagles established the fan-friendly NFL Training Camp, which was the most heavily attended in the league, featuring autograph sessions, interactive games, hospitality and an extraordinary merchandise tent. He also helped broker a record-setting naming rights deal with NovaCare, garnering a reported $66 million for the Eagles training facility, the NovaCare Complex.

Komoroski also played a leadership role in the development of Lincoln Financial Field, the Eagles state-of-the-art stadium. Through his efforts, the Eagles secured a 20-year, $140 million naming rights agreement with Lincoln Financial Group, one of the largest such agreements in pro sports history. He and his business group orchestrated the successful sellout of 172 suites, 8,000 club seats, 29,000 Stadium Builder Licenses and a waiting list of over 40,000 for season tickets.

Through the efforts of Komoroski and his team, the Eagles were among the most successful NFL teams in securing long-term seven-figure per annum "Founding Partner" relationships for new stadia; in addition, they forged many other substantial six-figure per annum agreements. He also completed top-tier industry agreements for Eagles radio and television coverage and concession agreements for Lincoln Financial Field. Behind Komoroski's leadership, the organization secured major soccer events, concerts, Division I college football games and the Army/Navy Game, establishing Lincoln Financial Field as one of the most active stadiums in sports. Through these efforts and events the Eagles have become one of the highest grossing franchises in professional sports.

This is Komoroski's second stint in the NBA, having been with the Minnesota Timberwolves from 1988-94 and having played a major role in the start-up of the team and its arena, the Target Center. While Komoroski was Vice President of Sales and the senior sales and marketing official for the team and arena, the Timberwolves became one of the most financially successful organizations in the league. After Minnesota, he came to Cleveland as Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the International Hockey League's (IHL) Cleveland Lumberjacks, and immediately transformed the Lumberjacks into a flourishing enterprise. Both attendance and revenues saw sharp increases during Komoroski's time, and the Lumberjacks were one of three profitable IHL teams in 1996.

Komoroski got his start in sports in 1982 with the Pittsburgh Spirit of the Major Indoor Soccer League, followed by management roles with the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League and the Minnesota Strikers of the MISL, and as a regional manager for the Miller Brewing Company's sports marketing arm.

Komoroski's achievements in professional sports have attracted considerable attention, and he has assumed leadership positions in several capacities. He is on the board of directors of the Cleveland chapters of City Year, the American Red Cross and the United Way, as well as the board of the Greater Cleveland Convention and Visitors Bureau. He is also a member of the Young Presidents Organization, the 50 Club and the Bluecoats.

2005-06 Cleveland Cavaliers Season Review

CAVALIERS 2005-06 GAME NOTES

PLAYOFF FEVER: The 2005-06 Cleveland Cavaliers season was one of the finest in franchise history. The team finished the season with a 50-32 (.610) record, which marked the fourth-best record in team history as they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since the 1997-98 season. Cleveland finished the season with the third-best record in the Eastern Conference and the second best record in the central division. Here's a look at the most wins per season by any Cavs team:

YEAR	RECORD
1988-89	57-25 (.695)
1991-92	57-25 (.695)
1992-93	54-28 (.659)
2005-06	50-32 (.610)
1975-76	49-33 (.598)

Additionally, the Cavaliers have home court advantage in the first round of the playoffs for the eighth time in franchise history and the first time since 1996 playoffs. Cleveland is 4-3 all-time in series in which they have home court advantage. Here's a look at each series in team history in which Cleveland has held the home court in the first round:

1989	Chicago	Lost, 2-3
1992	New Jersey	Won, 3-1
1992	Boston	Won, 4-3
1996	New York	Lost, 0-3

A YEAR FOR THE AGES: Cavaliers' forward LeBron James put together one of the finest individual seasons in NBA history in helping lead Cleveland to its first playoff appearance since the 1997-98 season. The following is a list of some of James' accomplishments this season:

- Became just the fourth player in NBA history to average at least 31.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 6.0 assists for an entire season joining Oscar Robertson (1963-64 and 1965-66), Jerry West (1965-66) and Michael Jordan (1988-89) in that exclusive group.
- Among all players to have scored 6,000 or more career points, James currently ranks sixth all-time in career scoring average at 26.5 points per game. The only players ahead of James are Michael Jordan (30.1), Wilt Chamberlain (30.1), Allen Iverson (28.0), Elgin Baylor (27.4) and Jerry West (27.0).
- Became just the second player in NBA history (Wilt Chamberlain) to raise their scoring average 10.0 points or more in their first three seasons in the league after averaging at least 20.0 points their rookie season. WHAT BROWN CAN DO: In his first year as an NBA Head Coach, Cavaliers Head Coach Mike Brown successfully navigated his team to the playoffs and became the winningest first year head coach in franchise history. Brown, the second youngest head coach in the NBA, was named the 17th Head Coach in Cleveland Cavaliers history on June 2, 2005 and immediately put his imprint on the team. The team jumped out quickly winning nine of its first 11 games on their way to the fourth most wins in team history (50-32). In the process, Brown surpassed Mike Fratello (1993-94) for most wins in a season by a Cavaliers first year head coach. He also became the first rookie head coach since Rick Carlisle in 2001-02 to post 50 wins. Here's a look at the top five first year records of Cavalier coaches:

The Pistons got the lead to double figures early in the second period, and Cleveland was never able to get within striking distance the rest of the way despite getting nice efforts from LeBron James, Zydrunas Ilgauskas and recent-acquisition Flip Murray. James put up 22 points, nine rebounds and seven assists in the contest and Zydrunas Ilgauskas scored 13 of his 15 points in the second half after missing part of the first quarter to receive stitches caused from an incident with Rasheed Wallace. Murray scored 17 points in 36 minutes off the bench. The Pistons forced 20 turnovers on defense and on offense were led by Chauncey Billups' 21 points and eight assists while getting double figures in points from Rasheed Wallace (15), Ben Wallace (11) and Richard Hamilton (18).

The Pistons went on a huge run in the first half and LeBron James injured his ankle in the second half as the Pistons handled the Cavaliers 96-73. With the score tied at 19 late in the first period, Detroit turned it on. The Pistons forced the Cavs into shooting .235 (4-17) in the second quarter and out-scored the Cavs 37-10 until halftime, building a 56-29 lead before the break. The Cavs were never able to get the game within shouting distance after halftime and lost LeBron James for the rest of the game with 1:46 remaining in the third quarter. James drove down the lane and kissed a lay-up off glass but landed on another player's foot, spraining his ankle in the process. James still finished with a game-high 22 points and Zydrunas Ilgauskas added 10 points and eight rebounds in his first game back after missing three games with a left ankle sprain. Six Pistons scored in double figures with Rasheed Wallace leading the way with 16 points and nine rebounds for Detroit.

Cleveland responded with a 10-3 run of their own and got the Miami lead down to two points but Antoine Walker knocked down a deep three-pointer from the top of they key with 19 seconds left in the game to preserve the Heat win. James added seven rebounds and four assists in addition to his game-high 47 points, and the Cavs got 21 points from Zydrunas Ilgauskas and nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds from Drew Gooden. Miami was led by Dwyane Wade's 35 points, nine rebounds and seven assists. Shaquille O'Neal added 18 points and eight rebounds.
